MISSED HER CHANCE

A little girl with dimpled cheeks; her face very gay said, "Mother, may I go with you to church today?" said mother to the smiling child, "You run along and play; I am very busy with my work, we will go some other day."

The little girl was never taught about Jesus and His love, how He died upon the cross for this sinful world. And so the years passed away, and her thoughts began to turn. She grew unto womanhood, and about Jesus she was not concerned.

Now, mother's steps are slowing down, she is thinking about the end; so she asks daughter to go to church, but her daughter has no time to spend, she is very busy with her crowd, no time for Christ today; so mother lost the finest chance to teach her daughter the way.

IS THE CHURCH TOO FAR FROM YOU?

A minister was encouraging a family to come to church; they lived only a few blocks but, to them it was too much. Another family that he knew drove fifty-seven miles, they were regular to each service, and they always had a smile.

Learn a lesson from these families; it's not the distance, it's the desire; it's not the weather, but they that hunger, they are the ones that try.

BLACK HISTORY FACTS

Black History Month began as "Negro History Week," which was created in 1926 by Carter G. Woodson, a noted African American historian, scholar, educator, and publisher. It became a month-long celebration in 1976. The month of February was chosen to coincide with the birthdays of Frederick Douglass and Abraham Lincoln.
